A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures. Send for and read the little book of extracts, treating of the properties and uses of the several medicinal roots that enter into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and learn why this medicine has such a wide range of application in the cure of diseases. It is sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol or harmful, habit-forming drug. Ingredients all printed on each bottle wrapper in plain English.

Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy.

Confession of a Murderer

Mystery surrounding the death of Mrs. Margaret Leslie, an actress, in her room at the Palace Hotel, Chicago, on Wednesday night, was cleared yesterday evening when Howard E. Nicholas confessed that he had strangled the woman and then escaped from the hotel with her diamonds concealed in a secret cavity in his artificial limb.

Nicholas is one of the most remarkable criminals the police of Chicago have had to deal with. Omitting no details and without hesitation, he told how the actress, suspecting nothing, had admitted him to her room, and how, while she sat on the edge of the bed, laughing and talking, he had suddenly crept close, overpowered her, and strangled her to death.

The woman's jewels were valued at $2,000. They have not been recovered.

Nicholas told how he went to Mrs. Leslie's room just before midnight. "When I asked her for money," he said, "she told me she was 'broke.' I then asked her to lend me the diamonds that I might pawn them. When she still refused I threatened her, and she laughed at me. I was the smallest, and a cripple.

"Well, I took a corner of the bed sheet and put it around her neck so my finger marks would not be left, and strangled her to death. She fought hard and pleaded for mercy, but I knew I was in for it, and I finished her. I laid her on the bed, arraigned things around the room, and turned on the gas to make it appear that she had committed suicide. Then I took the diamonds and hid them in my cork leg, and walked down the rear stairway and escaped.

Scene in Court.

During the trial of Denton Hopkins, charged with the murder of his wife, in Judge Aspinall's court, Brooklyn, yesterday, Hopkins, who is 54 years old, leaped from his chair and called his son, on the witness stand, a liar. Hopkins, who is said to be worth $100,000, which he made as an exporter of machine dies, it is charged, shot and killed his wife on October 7 last in the home of her sister. He went there, after their separation, to adjust a financial matter. He said that as the door opened his wife came down the steps aiming a revolver at him, and that he fired at her in self-defense. Besides the pistol used by Hopkins, another was found where Mrs. Hopkins fell. Harry Hopkins, the son, was testifying yesterday that his mother did not have a revolver, and that he was certain she did not have one that morning she was shot. When his father's attorney asked him if he had ever struck his father, he replied, "I never did".

"You are a liar," shouted the father, jumping from his chair and rushing for the witness, "You struck me more than once."

Several policemen restrained the father, and when he was quiet his son handed to Judge Aspinall a letter from Dr. G. M. Hammond, in which he said he examined the elder Hopkins in his cell in the Kings county jail and believed him to be insane.

Anna Held's Jewels Gone.

Anna Held, the actress, who played at Ford's Theatre in Baltimore, last week reported to the police at Cleveland on her arrival there that she had been robbed of a bag containing $120,000 worth of jewels.

A dispatch from Cleveland last night stated that Miss Held believed the men who got her jewels had followed her from Baltimore. She gave a description of the two men she suspected. The dispatch also states:

"The most valuable pieces stolen consist of a string of 63 pearls, valued at $35,000; a 15-inch corsage piece of diamonds and emeralds, valued at $25,000; a string of 51 pearls valued at $25,000; a dog-collar, with four brooches of diamonds and eight strings of pearls valued at $25,000; a diamond brooch worth $6,000 and 30 other articles, consisting of rings, chains of diamonds and necklaces, valued at from $500 to $5,000 each."

Miss Held told the police that the gems were stolen from her stateroom while she and her husband, Mr. Florenz Ziegfeld, jr., were temporarily absent from it, according to the dispatch. Miss Held said the jewels were in a small hand satchel, which contained more than $6,000 in money and papers and banknotes.

Ultimatum to Gompers.

President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of labor, was asked Monday by leading Chicago manufacturers to compel local unions to cease fighting among themselves. If this fighting was not stopped, he was told, the "open shop" would be established in the large woodworking factories of the city. The case was put plainly to Mr. Gompers. He was informed that either the unions must abide by their written contracts and conduct themselves peaceably or else a great lockout, which may involve as many as 6,000 or 7,000 skilled factory workers, will follow. After receiving the complaints of the employers Mr. Gompers admitted that they were in the right and declared that interunion strife must stop at once.

Samuel Gompers was in Indianapolis yesterday. After speaking at Lafayette Monday night he practically admitted that he will abandon the stump. Gompers gives business reasons, but it is well known that his meetings have not drawn laboring men and that he is discouraged. His audience at Lafayette was very small. Gompers has been told that it will be impossible to array laboring men against any member of Congress.

Devil's Island Torture.

is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, Burns and Sores like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The certain, rational cure for Catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the discomfort of Nasal Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate Nurse from the Blockley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes:

"I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to use."

"Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would bloat after eating, and frequently become nauseated. I had pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement.

The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is strictly confidential.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCT. 24, 1906.

REMNANTS of women's hats and fragments of other finery strewed the outer lobby of the House of Commons at the reopening of Parliament yesterday. More than a hundred militant woman suffragists managed, despite the protests of the police, to find their way into the outer lobby of the House, with the intention of buttonholing the members in support of their movement. Some even mounted vacant chairs in the lobby and began to harrangue the few members of Parliament present in that part of the house. After being reinforced the police began to eject the invaders one by one from the precincts of Parliament The women struggled so desperately that a number of officers were required to remove them. All of which furnished the strongest argument against woman suffrage that could have been made.

FORMER MAYOR OSBORNE, of Auburn, and other influential democrats are in control of the headquarters of the democratic State committee in Albany, N. Y., and, according to a statement by Francis A. Willard, who is in direct charge of their operations, they will be run "for the best interests of the democratic party" and against Mr. Hearst and his followers. Many good and true democrats outside of New York believe that the best service that could be done the New York democracy would be the elimination of Mr. Hearst.

MR. GOMPERS, president of the American Federation of Labor, is considering the advisability of abandoning the stump for this campaign. He gives business reasons for this condition, but it is well known that his meetings have not been largely attended by laboring men, and that this has proved a discouraging feature to him. The quicker Mr. Gompers retires from the stump the better it will be for him and all concerned. Certainly he is doing the democratic party no good

BY ORDER of Mayor Weaver, issued yesterday afternoon, "The Clansman" is prohibited from being played in Philadelphia, on the ground that "it has a tendency to intensify racial hatred, and to incite to riot." Should the Mayor of Richmond prevent the production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in that city it would be considered by the Mayor of Philadelphia a "southern outrage."

MR. W. J. BRYAN predicts that the next House of Representatives will be democratic. It is hoped so, but many things have occurred during the past two months to make doubtful what had been considered almost a certainty up to that time concerning the political complexion of the House.

Washington, Oct. 24.

The Peoples Savings Bank, of Washington, D. C., was closed this morning by direction of the Comptroller of the Currency upon the report of National Bank Examiner Owen T. Reeves, jr., showing the institution to be in an insolvent condition. The bank was incorporated under the laws of West Virginia. It has been doing business in this city since June, 1905. The resources and liabilities as shown by its last report of condition made to the Comptroller at the close of business September 4, 1906, were $210,869.56 each. John W. Schofield has been appointed receiver.

Introduced and wooed on the army transport Sheridan and married in Manila at the end of the voyage were the romantic events preceding the marriage of Mrs. John T. Fremont, of New York, to Capt. Frank T. Woodbury, U. S. A. And then the Sheridan was dashed to pieces on the rocks. Announcement of the wedding has just reached the United States. Mrs. Fremont is fifty and Capt. Woodbury is thirty. Mrs. Fremont, famous as a singer, had just been divorced in New York from Major John V. Fremont, court-martialed while on duty in the Philippines. The wedding was an event in Manila. Society talked for days about the affair. Capt. Woodbury comes from Pennsylvania. He became assistant surgeon in the army in 1901 and still serves in that department.

Regret is felt by officials of the State Department at the outburst of anti-American feeling in Japan. That Japan should blame all America for the acts of a few labor agitators in California who have started a movement for the restriction of Japanese immigration into this country, is considered unjust and it is believed that when the true situation is explained to the Japanese people there will be a decided revulsion of feeling in favor of the United States. When a high official of the State Department was asked this morning to account for the sudden spread of anti-American sentiment in Japan he declared without hesitation it was due to two things: The agitation in California to prevent the employment of Japanese labor and the temporary restriction of attendance in the San Francisco schools to white pupils. It is not expected in administration circles that the labor leaders of California will be successful in their endeavors to prevent the immigration of Japanese laborers into this country. Such a proposition will be strenuously opposed by the President and it is not believed that a bill for this purpose would ever receive the serious consideration of the Congress.

The Cabinet changes announced by President Roosevelt have caused more of a stir among the politicians of the capital than any official happening in many a month. Probably the greatest interest attaches to the appointment of Oscar S. Straus as Secretary of Commerce and Labor. The fact that Mr. Straus has been a life-long democrat is regarded as likely to have far-reaching results. In the New York campaign, it is urged, the appointment of Mr. Straus is quite likely to stir up a hornet's nest and cause the loss to Hughes of a great many staunch republicans. This defection, however, is expected to be offset by the number of democrats who will be won over. The fact that Mr. Straus is a Hebrew adds interest and may arouse additional criticism of the President in making the appointment. There was a good deal of gossip during the last year or so that James R. Garfield, chief of Bureau of Corporations, would eventually become a member of the President's Cabinet. It is understood that this rumor is still likely to be verified, but probably not for a year or two.

If the anti-Japanese feeling on the Pacific coast increases, the State Department will at the first convenient opportunity convey unofficially to the Japanese government through the Embassy here assurances that the hostile sentiment in no wise reflects the attitude of the American people or of this government.

According to a dispatch received by the Navy Department today from Capt. Southerland, the senior U. According to mail advices from the Philippines, the Supreme Court of the island have turned a trick that is new to American courts. Three robbers were sentenced in the lower courts to imprisonment for seven years for raiding a house. The Supreme Court after reviewing the case increased the sentence from seven to nine years.

How much ice is organized labor cutin the present campaign? Republican managers say none; democratic managers say much. The republicans point with pride to the re-election of Congressman Littlefield in Maine against whom the American Federation of Labor discharged its heaviest guns. They admit that the Gompers campaign is somewhat annoying, but they say that it is not dangerous. They confidently predict the re-election of all other republican Congressmen who have been placed under the ban of the federation. In the matter of State politics, the Federation finds itself in a peculiar situation. While it is generally admitted that in New York State organized labor will line up Hearst, in Chicago the labor men and the Independence Leaguers are at loggerheads. When President Gompers tried to patch up the differences in the Windy City the other night, he was hissed and called an anarchist by an audience of labor men. Upon the general outcome of the elections will probably depend the future policy of the Federation.

The body of Mme. Ratanayapti, wife of the new Minister from Siam to this country, whose death from kidney trouble occurred at the Arlington Hotel last Thursday under painful circumstances, was consigned to the receiving vault at Rock Creek Cemetery yesterday afternoon. It will be allowed to rest in a sepulchre or vault, and will be cremated at the expiration of a period of time proportional to her rank in her own country and the ashes will be sent to Siam. Absolute secrecy relative to the whole affair was maintained until yesterday when Edward H. Loftus, first secretary of the legation, gave out the circumstances of the death.

The Canadian Pacific has also granted an increased of 2½ cents per hour to 2,000 machinists employed by it.

Announcement of arrests in connection with the sub-treasury shortage at St. Louis is momentarily expected by treasury officials. Up to 10 o'clock this morning the Treasury Department had received from twelve National banks their acceptance of Secretary Shaw's general invitation to banks to increase their circulation. Burning of a Freight Steamer.

New York, Oct. 24.—Crashing into a big three-masted schooner in Long Island sound between Greenwich and Stamford early today the steamer Hastings was set afire and before captain or crew could stop the blaze she was a roaring inferno. Captain A. N. Van Etten and his crew of eleven men were forced to take to the life boats and for nearly an hour they were tossed about on a rough sea of the sound awaiting to be picked up. Their boat was a small one and was neatly swamped several times. Finally the Middleton, of the Fall River line, attracted to the spot by the lurid glare of the burning ship, picked them up. The crew fought the flames and many of them were so burned and smoke begrimed when they were picked up, that they were hardly recognizable as human beings.

In urging an indorsement of President Roosevelt at the coming election, James R. Garfield, Commissioner of Corporations, told an audience of republicans in Cleveland Ohio, last night that the industrial problem, the problem of capital and labor, is in every way as serious a problem for this country to solve as was the slavery question. "And if not settled," said Garfield, "it might go to savage extremes now scarcely dreamed of."

At a political meeting at Johnstown, Pa., yesterday, State Treasurer Berry read an answer to a series of questions asked him by the republican advisory board, in which he made the astounding statement that when he took charge of the State treasury some months ago, from $4,000,000 to $6,000,000 in cash and securities, which should have been in the treasury, were not turned over to him He says he discovered this fact only recently.

Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, yesterday issued an order suppressing the further production in that city of the drama "The Clansman," which began Monday night what was to have been a week's engagement at the Walnut Street Theater. City Council.

Considerable business was transacted at the meeting of the City Council last night, most of which was of a routine nature. Both boards passed a resolution offering a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of Charles T. Smith last Saturday night.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the members of the Board of Aldermen were present at the meeting last night.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney, from the finance committee, submitted a favorable report on a bill of Corporation Attorney Fisher ($75) for legal service, which was adopted.

Mr. Ballenger introduced an ordinance providing for an increase of the police force from nineteen to twenty-three men, including a chief and two lieutenants, and fixing the pay of the chief at $780 per annum, the lieutenants at $720, and the privates at $600. The ordinance was referred to the committee on finance, police and general laws.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney introduced a resolution offering a reward of $250 for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of Chas. T. Smith on the night of October 20.

Mr. Hill moved the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Simpson thought the resolution right and proper; its passage might aid in capturing the fugitive negro who did the shooting, but the present laws of the State forbade City Councils or Boards of Supervisors from offering a reward exceeding $100 in such cases. He did not think that the present case called for a reward for the capture of the perpetrator of the last crime as much as did that concerning the murder of George Curtin. That was a murder mystery; the unfortunate occurrence of last Saturday night is by no means mysterious. The man who fired the shot was seen and recognized. No effort, so far as the offering of a reward, was made by Council to unravel the Curtin case.

While Council may have been at fault then, it had seemingly set a precedent for Council to follow. He repeated that the State laws provided that rewards for the apprehension of murderers must not exceed $100.

President Sweeney called attention to the fact that the city of Roanoke had recently offered a reward of $500 for the capture of a murderer.

Mr. Simpson replied by saying that Roanoke may have gone out of the way on the occasion referred to. He reiterated that the State law was against such action.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney said he presumed that Mr. Simpson was correct. He referred to the action of the Aldermen in adopting a resolution offering a reward for the apprehension of the person or persons who murdered George Curtin. He supposed that the police have done all possible for them to do in the last murder case. A reward, however, would stimulate detectives in other cities to endeavor to capture the fugitive negro. The speaker believed it would be beneficial to pass the resolution which had been presented.

Mr. Hill thought legislation was often irregular so far as the actual letter of the law was concerned. No one would object to the provisions of the resolution, even if $500 instead of $250 were offered. If Council was allowed to offer but $100 reward, he could be put down for the additional $150.

President Sweeney said the proffer of Mr. Hill was very liberal, but he thought the matter of the reward should be dealt with by Council alone.

The resolution was finally passed, but later a conference committee from the lower board appeared in the chamber and announced that the Common Council had adopted a resolution offering $500 reward. Messrs. Burke and W. H. Sweeney were appointed on the part of the Aldermen. The committee recommended that the Aldermen recede from their action and adopt the resolution of the Common Council, This report was adopted.

A report of the committee on streets recommending that workmen on the streets be paid 15 cents an hour was received from the lower board and their action concurred in.

Mr. Simpson subsequently moved that the Aldermen reconsider their action, he saying he voted for the concurrence without thoroughly understanding the purpose of the committee's recommendation, which seemed to make no increase at all, provided the men were compelled to work only eight hours a day part of the year. The men had asked for bread and were about to receive a stone.

His motion prevailed and considerable debate followed, which was participated in by all the members.

President Sweeney did not think $1.50 a day too much pay for a man. He referred to the increased cost of the necessaries of life, house rent, &c., and argued to show that the committee was really reducing the pay of the men instead of increasing it.

It was the impression of some of the members that the workmen were already receiving $1 25 a day, but members of the street committee finally succeeded in straitening out the matter by showing that the men were now being paid 12½ cents an hour and the committee proposed to increase their pay to 15 cents an hour.

Mr Curtin said if the pay was increased to $1.50 a day it meant an additional appropriation of $600 or $700 per annum or the discharge of some of the men. The matter was therefore up to Council.

President Sweeney announced that he would cheerfully vote for the additional appropriation.

The debate continued until Mr. Simpson said Mr. Marbury had made the matter plain to him by showing that the men now worked by the hour and received 12½ cents for the same. The committee had recommended that the amount be fixed at 15 cents. This was, of course, an increase, and he was satisfied to vote for a concurrence with the action of the Common Council.

Mr. Curtin stated that 15 cents an hour was the standard pay for laborers around the wharves and other places.

Mr. Ballenger also said that the report of the committee covered the object of the resolution which provided for an increase of pay.

The action of the lower board was subsequently concurred in.

The other business transacted caused no debate.

COMMON COUNCIL.

It was nearly 8 o'clock when the board was called to order. The reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

A communication was received from the Mayor urging a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of C. T. Smith; and also recommending an appropriation for the benefit of the family of Mr. Smith sufficient at least to defray the funeral expenses. The Chair said that unless there was objection the message would be referred.

Mr. Evans thought that a reward should be offered at once and he moved that a reward of $500 be offered for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of Mr. Smith.

The resolution of Mr. Evans was temporarily laid aside, while reports from committees were being received.

Later a resolution from the aldermen appropriating $250 came in, but it was laid over, and Mr. Evans' resolution was adopted.

Mr. Birrell offered a resolutions that $250 be appropriated for the relief of the family of C. T. Smith.

The Chair thought that such a resolution as that of Mr. Birrell should go to a committee.

Mr. Birrell wanted immediate action. Mr. Smith's family had been left in reduced circumstances and the unfortunate man had lost his life while performing his duty for the city. He held that such an appropriation was as constitutional as the offering of a reward for the capture of the murderer. Messrs. Leadbeater and the Harrison and the Chair deplored the death of Mr. Smith and expressed sympathy for his family but thought the resolution should go to a committee. The matter was referred.

A communication from City Engineer Dunn was received asking for the passage of an ordinance granting the city engineer and the committee on streets authority to proceed with repair work of sections of streets occupied by railroad tracks, the expense to be paid by the companies upon due notice. It was referred to the committee on streets and general laws.

A resolution by Mr. Leadbeater directing the committee on general laws and the corproation counsel to report to council as to the advisability of calling upon the state corporation commission to inquire into the right of the railroad lines entering Alexandria to remove the freight and passenger station to a point a considerable distance outside the city limits. Mr. Leadbeater stated the belief that the companies could not, under their charter, "thus abandon a city of 20,000 people and place the merchants and other citizens at great disadvantage concerning transportation facilities." The communication was referred to the committee on general laws.

Mrs. S. A. Smith was authorized to erect a small frame addition to a kitchen at No. 115 south Alfred street.

A resolution to advance the wages of the laborers on the street force from 12½c to 15c per hour was agreed to.

The committee on light and streets reported against the erection of more electric lights at the present time and the report was agreed to.

An ordinance fixing the grade of Patrick street, between Prince and Duke, was presented by the committee on streets and passed.

Mr. Uhler called attention to the fact that it made the sidewalks there wider than those of the blocks north and south.

An ordinance for macadamizing this square was reported and agreed to though it was admitted that the cost to the property-owners on that street would not be as much as for work done on some other streets.

The sum of $550 was appropriated also to pave Prince street from Union to the river.

Council agreed with the Aldermen as to the paving of Cameron street from Lee to Union and Queen street from St. Asaph to Pitt street.

The sum of $1,200 was appropriated for paving on Alfred between Queen and Princess streets.

Considerable discussion was occasioned by the divided report of the street committee on the petition of J. F. Rodgers for permission to rebuild the bay windows at No. 611 King street. The majority report was adverse to the petition, but a minority report was in its favor. It was explained that the application was for the construction of a window which would reach beyond the building line of the street.

Mr. Brill moved that the report be rejected and the petition for an extension be granted. He said that the new windows would not extend quite as far as the present windows.

Mr. Harrison, Mr. Leadbeater and the Chair thought that the building line as established should be adhered to.

Mr. Brill's motion was lost by a vote of 7 to 7 and the report of the committee met a similar fate as did also a motion to recommit. The matter was then dropped.

Later the subject of offering a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the murderer of C. T. Smith again came up and while waiting for the action of the board of aldermen in the matter, Mr. Evans took occasion to arraign the police force of the city.

"It seems," he said, "that it is perfectly useless to expect anything from the Alexandria police force. The grand jury condemned the entire organization, saying that it was utterly useless and might as well be abandoned." Continuing he said: "We have had three brutal murders in Alexandria in the past few months, and the only man that has been brought to justice is the one who walked into police headquarters and gave himself up. This is a black eye, not only for the police, but for the entire city. The board of police commissioners held an investigation behind closed doors, lasting several weeks.

"I am told that there were charges against every member of the force except Capt. Webster. He was reduced to the ranks from the position of chief, apparently because they could find nothing against him. Further than that the board has done nothing, and it would seem that the charges against the others have been whitewashed." Mr. Evans said he had some warm friends on the police force, and regretted having to criticise the department, but that he felt it was a public duty he must perform. "The only way to get this criminal," he asserted, "is to offer a suitable reward, and outside people will secure him for us."

Mr. Birrell defended the police force and said there were a number of good men on the force. He thought there should be a larger force. He said that it had been the custom for some time to attack the police in council whenever there was a lull in the proceedings.

Mr. Spinks also defended the force He said he realized that there had been considerable adverse criticism the last few days, but of his personal knowledge he could say that the entire force had been working day and night to apprehend Mr. Smith's murderer.

The aldermen having appropriated $250 as the reward, and the council $500, on motion of Mr. Williams, Messrs. Brill and Uhler were appointed a committee of conference. The committee returned and reported that the aldermen had receded, and had concurred with council in an appropriation of $500.

An ordinance for an increase of the police came in from the aldermen, and their reference was agreed to.

Council concurred in the action of the aldermen at the last meeting relative to the transfer of a portion of the fund received for the purchase of the electric franchise for the purchase by the sinking fund commissioners of an outstanding note of $5,000 due by the school board.

The Machinists' Strike.

Nonunion machinists continue to be employed to take the places of the strikers in the shops of the Southern Railway at different points on the line of that road. The machinists are still hopeful of effecting a settlement of the strike. The impression seems to prevail among the machinists that negotiations to effect a settlement, which were declared off when the strikers' committee refused to accept a proposition to arbitrate, will be reopened in the near future.

Advices from the various towns along the route of the Southern Railway indicate that the strike among the workmen of that company is increasing.

The strike among the machinists at Knoxville, Tenn., is said to be spreading. When the news of the failure of an agreement had been received, ten foremen who had remained in the shops walked out, refusing to work under the present conditions.

It is reported that a number of boilermakers in the boiler shops at several places have quit work. It is also said that the strike may spread to all the other departments.

There was no change in the situation in this city this morning. The machinists formerly employed by the company in Alexandria are still out, and no other men have taken their places.

President James O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists, left Washington today for New York where he will confer with President Spencer, of the Southern Railway, on a proposition to settle the strike of the machinists on the Southern. There are 800 machinists out, seeking an increase of 2 cents per hour. The strikers are being given from $10 to $12 per week from the international association.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The action of Mayor Hawxhurst, of East Falls Church, in imposing a fine of $10, together with costs, upon Barbara Pope, colored, on the charge of violating the "jim crow" law, was confirmed yesterday afternoon after a trial which had lasted part of two days. Counsel for the defense noted an appeal. It is understood that the matter will be taken to the higher courts with a view of testing the constitutionality of the law. It is said that the womau is backed by an organization of colored people, who are endeavoring to get a decision from the United States Supreme Court as to the constitutionality of the jim crow law.

On behalf of Charlotte L. Drain, Attorney J. E. Clements yesterday afternoon made a motion before Judge Nicol for an injunction to restrain Frank Lyon and Will W. Douglass, trustees, from selling a piece of property under a deed of trust. Attorney R. W. Moore, for the trustees, opposed the motion, and it was finally agreed to let the legal advertisement, offering the property for sale, remain standing for thirty days, at the expiration of which time the sale will be made for the beneficiaries if the money has not been paid.

Today the time of the court has been occupied in hearing the case of J. E. Adams vs. the W., A. & F. C. Ry. Co., a suit for $5,000 damages for alleged personal injuries. A non suit was entered in the case this evening.

Ordered to Leave the City.

Officers Nicholson and Bettis last night arrested West Donnell and Bessie Keys, both colored, at the instance of Edward Elzey, also colored, who charged the woman with using abusive language toward him and the man with threatening to kill him. In the evidence before the Police Court this morning it was shown that Donnell usually carried a pistol and when he came to the city at night delivered the weapon to the proprietor of a saloon in the northeastern section of the city who kept it until the next morning. It was also shown that he had threatened to kill Elzey. Donnell had no weapon on his person when arrested. He said he was from Manassas. The accused was dismissed with the understanding that he would leave the city within half an hour, or be sent to the chain gang for sixty days. The saloonkeeper was ordered to turn the pistol over to the authorities. The Keys woman, by her own testimony, showed that she is a vagrant, and was sent to jail for 60 days. Negro spectators of the proceedings of the Police Court have been scarce recently, as Justice Caton has announced his intention of bringing such before the bar. A few of this class had the temerity to get on the stairs leading up to the court room this morning. When the sentence was pronounced on Bessie Keys, the would-be spectators, only the heads of whom were visible, disappeared instantly.

The Offering of Rewards.

Considerable debate occurred in both branches of the City Council last night over the resolution to offer a reward for the arrest of the murderer of Mr. C. T. Smith. In the Common Council the chairman held that Council had the authority to offer a reward but was not aware of the limitation. In the Aldermen Mr. Simpson stated that under the law only a reward of $100 could be offered. He was right. The following is the law:

Chapter 25, acts 1906, page 18: Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: And when a felony has been committed, or attempted to be committed, in any county, city or town of this State, the board of supervisors of said county, or the Council of said city or town, where said offense is committed may, in their discretion offer such a reward as they think right, not to exceed one hundred dollars, for the arrest and conviction of said criminal. Said reward to be paid out of the county levy, or the contingent fund of the city or town when duly approved and ordered to be paid.

The Henry Street Track.

Nothing but light engines are passing over the Henry street railroad track. The track, it is said, is not in proper order for the passage of heavy trains yet. As soon as it can be sufficiently strengthened all Southern Railway, B. & O and C. & O. trains, it is announced, will pass through Alexandria via Henry street.

Personal.

Mr. H K Field, High Priest, Mr. E. E Downham, P. H. P., and Mr J. J. Green, D. D. G H. P., of Mt. Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, are in Richmond to attend the meeting of the Grand Chapter, and Mr. Arthur Paul, E. C, and Mr. Harry Hammond, H. P, of Old Dominion Commandery, K. T., will leave for Richmond this evening to attend the meeting of the Grand Commandery.

Mr. William B. Mauphin and Miss Myrtle V. Hackney were married at 7:30 o'clock Monday night at Christ Church rectory by Rev. Mr. Morton. Miss Hackney wore a tailored suit of light gray broadcloth with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. The bride was tendered a reception at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Mills, on Oronoco street, and later Mr. and Mrs. Mauphin left for their future home on Duke street. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents.

The engagement is announced of Miss Rena Kaufmann to Mr. Raymond Blumenfeld, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. William Rogers, whose serious illness has been mentioned in the Gazette, is improving.

Messrs. W. A. Smoot, jr., A. D. Brockett, F. S. Harper and Frank King, of the Chamber of Commerce, are in Philadelphia on railroad business in the interest of Alexandria.

Mr. Alexander Lyles has gone to Roanoke to attend the meeting of the Grand Camp, Confederate Veteran.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Harry Johnson, colored, arrested by Officer Arrington charged with larceny from the store of Wm. Priest, was dismissed.

George Carter and Ed. McCaffrey, arrested by Officer Jones charged with being drunk in the street, were fined $5 each.

Ferd Patton, arrested by the same officer on a similar charge, was sent to jail for ten days.

West Connell, colored, arrested by Officers Nicholsou and Bettis charged with using abusive language toward Elward Elzey, colored, was ordered to leave the city.

Bessie Keys, colored, arrested by the same officers charged with being a party to the above offense, was dismissed on that charge, but sent to jail for 60 days under the vagrant act.

Malvin Johnson, a colored boy who had been arrested by Officer Jones for assaulting Harvey Brown, another colored boy, with a beer bottle, was dismissed after his mother had whipped him.

Opera House.

The entertainment given last night by the Moore-Simonds Company at the Opera House for the benefit of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Co. was of an unusually interesting nature and was pronounced a rare treat. About 5,000 yards of picture film were used and the pictures were interesting and enjoyable. Mr. Tom Moore sang several topical songs, which were illustrated by a number of beautifully colored slides. Mr. Moore has a baritone voice of wide range and he was heartily applauded. The Metropolitan Male Quartet, of Washington, made a decided hit with their beautiful singing and were compelled to respond to six encores. The entertainment is the best of the kind ever seen in this city and it will be repeated again tonight with new pictures, new songs and new specialties.

Threatened to Kill a Woman.

A negro named William Mahoney was arrested Monday night by Officer Young as a suspicious character. When he was placed in the dock of the Police Court yesterday morning the suspect said he lived in Washington where he was employed. He failed to give any satisfactory reason for visiting this city and was ordered to be held until he could be identified. Later Justice Caton dismissed him with the understanding that he leave the city within half an hour. Early last night a colored woman named Francis Swan appeared at the station house and alleged that Mahoney had come to her house, No. 910 Wolfe street, and threatened to cut her throat if she did not return with him to Washington. Officers went on a search for Mahoney, but he left the city and eluded them.

Case Went Over.

The matter of the requisition from Governor Swanson for the return to the Alexandria county authorities of Joseph Thomas, colored, alias John Wright, wanted for the murder of Jackson Boney, also colored and also for assault on Miss Risley and Forrest Gooding, came up in the Washington Criminal Court today but went over till tomorrow in order to give council time to prepare the case.

Men Discharged.

All the men recently employed in the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad transfer service between this city and Shepherd's have been discharged except the engiuer and fireman of the tugboat Brewerton which is still at this port. It has not been determined what disposition will be made of the tugboat. A three-masted schooner is now loading railroad ties at the slip at the foot of Wilkes street.

No New Developments

Chief Goods and Officer Garvey returned yesterday evening from Rockville, Md., where a negro supposed to be Johnson, who shot and killed Charles T. Smith last Saturday night, was in custody. The officers, after examining the subject, satisfied themselves that he was not the man wanted in this city. There have been no new developments today.

Today's Telegraphic News

Excited Woman Suffragists.

London, Oct. 24.—Seldom if ever in the history of London's police courts have such scenes been enacted as those witnessed today in the arraignment of the woman suffragists arrested yesterday for creating a disturbance in the lobby of the House of Commons where they tried to force their way to buttonhole members for their cause.

The hearing of the cases was exciting enough. Outside the court room there was a veritable pitched battle between the suffragists and the police. Fifty officers called on special duty to guard the courts could not preserve any semblance of order. Westminister police court was certainly the liveliest place in London today.

Trouble began when the eight prisoners were arraigned. They refused to testify in court, saying they did not recognize the jurisdiction of a male court, where they had no voice. All were bound over in the sum of $25 to keep the peace for six months, but the determined women declined to give bonds, saying they preferred to go to jail.

Many sympathizers in the court room loudly expressed approval of every utterance of the prisoners and tried repeatedly to create an uproar. The judge kept them quiet with difficulty until the hearing was finished.

Then the real fun began. Several of the women refused to leave the room where the hearing was held despite the orders of the police. So the officer in charge left them inside locking the doors. Other suffragists attacked the policeman and took the keys from him.

The women released their companions, then seized the policeman and threw him bodily into the court room and turned the keys on him, marching off in triumph.

Several other officers gave chase to the women, but it was only after a hard hand to hand struggle that they were able to recapture the key.

Outside the court house fully 2,000 persons had collected, to see what would happen to the suffragists. The women started to harangue this crowd from the steps of the court house. By this time the policemen were pretty well aroused and the petticoat orators were thrown bodily into the crowd. Reserves were then called out and the whole crowd was driven away.

Several of the policemen suffered greatly in the struggle with the women, who fought and bit and kicked the officers.

Torn uniforms and bleeding faces where the finger nails of the suffragists had left traces of their effectiveness were the rule among the officers in charge in the court room. Sentence of two months imprisonment was passed on the agitators for their refusal to give bond to keep the peace. When this sentence was pronounced women in the room shouted "shame." It was in trying to silence them that the policemen met with such rough treatment.

Mother Smothers Babes.

New York, Oct. 24.—Frenzied by the thought that she is responsible for the death of her two babes, who were suffocated during the night while sleeping with her, Mrs. John McElroy is today prostrated with grief. No blame is attached to the woman, but her own remorse is worse than any punishment that could be inflicted upon her. The children, Mary and Charlie, nine weeks old twins, were found by the mother dead when she awoke this morning. A cold little body rested on either side of her. In some way during the night, the mother is supposed to have rolled on both children, crushing out their lives, or to have drawn the bed cloths over their heads preventing them from breathing. When the awful truth broke upon her Mrs. McElroy became frantic and doctors have been in attendance upon her ever since.

Disappearance of Young Woman.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 24.—With all the stage settings of the most thrilling melodrama, a window pane from which a piece of glass had been cut, an empty chloroform bottle, found on the floor, a locked bed room door, and other necessary accessories, Miss Fannie Siebrotham widely known for her beauty, disappeared from her home last night. Today all Birmingham is wondering whether it is a case of abduction, an elopement, or whether some other crime has been committed. Absolutely no clew exists to explain the young woman's disappearance, It is generally believed that the young woman has been abducted.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—A passenger train was wrecked on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad at Jacks Run, a few miles below Allegheny, at 12:25 o'clock this afternoon. The wreck is about 300 yards below Bellevue station. The Cleveland "Flyer" jumped the tracks and the engines rolled into the Ohio river, and the coaches are off the track. Later dispatches from the scene of the wreck state that no one was killed, but four persons are seriously injured.

Filed Objections to Will.

New York, Oct. 24.—Alleging that the late Hermann Oelrichs was a resident of California, and that the property which his will disposes of is community property under the laws of California, one-half of which must go to the widow upon her husband's death, Mrs. Teresa Alice Oelrichs today filed objections in the Surrogate's Court to the probate of the will of Mr. Oelrichs by which she was cut off from sharing in his estate. Their son, Hermann Oelrichs, jr., is joined in the proceedings.

Dedication of Cathedral.

Pittsburg Pa., Oct. 24—The apostolic delegate to the United States, Diomede Falconio, presided over the ceremony attending the consecration and dedication of St. Paul's Roman Catholic Cathedral here today. The consecration mass was celebrated by Cardinal Gibbons and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Fidelis Kentstone. The cathedral cost $1,000,000 and is one of the grandest structures of its kind in the United States.

Changes in His Cabinet.

Postmaster General Cortelyou will succeed Mr. Shaw as Secretary of the Treasury.

Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte will succeed Mr. Moody as Attorney General.

Secretary of Commerce and Labor Metcalf will succeed Mr. Bonaparte as Secretary of the Navy.

Ambassador to Russia George V. L. Meyer will succeed Mr. Cortelyou as Postmaster General.

Mr. Oscar S. Strauss, of New York, will succeed Mr. Metcalf as Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

A successor to Mr. Meyer as ambassador to Russia has not as yet been announced, but it is understood that Mr. Lloyd C. Griscom, who was recently transferred from Japan to Bazil, will go to St. Petersburg, and that Mr. John Barrett, now minster to Columbia, will succeed Mr. Griscom as ambassador to Brazil, unless the President decides to place him at the head of the Bureau of American Republics.

Of the Cabinet changes, only one that of Mr. Straus, to become Secretary of Commerce and Labor, is news. All the other changes have been retold in the Gazette. Mr. Strauss was once a democrat and will be the first Hebrew to serve in the cabinet of a President of the United States.

Actress Claims Damages.

New York Oct. 24—Octavia Labarbe wants $1,687 because the management of Barnum & Bailey won't let her risk her life in the "dip of death." The management stands pat and says she is too fat. The court issued a sealed verdict today. Miss Labarbe says she contracted with the circus company for the season beginning about March this year. And she claims the company broke the contract. The "dip of death" is the act where a young woman, strapped in an automobile, rides down a steep incline, goes up again a few feet and then, both automodile and occupant turn a complete somersault landing smoothly to the sighs and "ahs" of the audience.

Cats.

A man of cats declares it is the worst of luck for a pet black cat to forsake your home. A woman of cats asserts it is the best of luck. In the middle ages Satan's favorite form was a black cat. Witches always have a cat as their familiar—a stray black pussy in preference. If a white cat races across your yard a child is going to die. If a stray cat of any color takes up with you, making your house its home, you will have good luck. Napoleon Bonaparte showed a morbid horror of cats. The night before the battle of Waterloo a black cat passed near him, and at the sight the great warrior was completely unnerved. He saw an omen of defeat. Henry III. of France swooned whenever he saw a cat, and one of the Ferdinands of Germany would tremble in his boots if a harmless tabby got in the line of his vision. Among the Romans cat was a symbol of liberty. The Egyptians held the animal in veneration under the name of Aelurus, a deity with a human body and a cat's head. Whoever killed a cat, even by accident, was put to death. Diana assumed the form of a cat and excited the fury of the giants.

Yellowtail Fishing.

There are no "between rounds," no breathing spells, with the yellowtail. He is fighting for his life desperately, no quarter given nor asked, with an amazing staying power akin to that marvelous faculty of the leaping tuna. The angler is far more likely to be the first one exhausted; the inches of line gradually granted to the "pumping" rod are earned by the sweat of his brow and the semiparalysis of the biceps.

"Have I got a fish or a devil?" exclaimed a weary Englishman after a half hour's work, with Sir Yellowtail still gamboling at the end of 200 feet of line. And many have shared his astonishment while "catching" these animated galvanic batteries.

That man has lived and lived intensely to whose bending rod a half dozen lusty yellowtail have capitulated in a bright afternoon. May his remaining history be ever so humdrum or prosaic, that crisp encounter will illuminate the dullest moments.—F. L. Harding in Field and Stream.

Brazil's Jungles.

The jungles of Central America and Brazil are masses of vegetation so dense that it is practically impossible to penetrate them. Swain and his party when crossing the isthmus of Darien labored hard with their hatchets and machetes the whole of one day and achieved but half a mile. In many parts of Central America the undergrowth renews itself so rapidly that it is almost impossible to keep a road open through it. In one instance in Honduras a road sixteen feet wide was made by engineers and laborers through a jungle, the underbrush and vines being cut away even with the ground. Two weeks later, returning to complete the work by laying stones on the roadbed, they could not find the road, the vines having completely filled the vacant space.

As Seen From a Balloon.

Sense of danger you have of course none, for you are so aghast at the dangers run by your dear ones below from motors and bicycles and trains and gas works and all the other things terrestrial that all concern for your own safety goes. And the shocking air they breathe and the horrid little wormlike trains that burrow in and out of dark looking holes—how unhealthy the whole earthly existence seems to you as you glide motionless through the air, with white clouds below you stretched out as a sort of silver carpet at your feet and above you nothing but a limitless expanse of deep blue sky!—Bystander.

Velvet.

Velvet is manufactured by placing in the loom rows of very short threads of the material designed to be employed, whether cotton or silk. These are then caught up by the cross threads in the weaving and fastened in such a way that the fleecy ends present themselves all on one side of the fabric. The manufacture of velvet is so slow that for a hand weaver a yard is considered a good day's work. The machine made velvet is of course turned out much more rapidly.

Corrected.

"No," remarked the man who had traveled and had returned to the place of his birth, "the village is not what it used to be. Many of the old landmarks have vanished."

"What landmarks?" asked the native resentfully.

"Why, the town pump, for instance."

"Call that a landmark? I call it a water mark!"

Parental Influence.

"Sir," said the young man, "I trust you will object to my marriage with your daughter?"

"Why so?" queried the astonished parent.

"Because," explained the young man "if you do I think she will consent to have me."—Chicago News.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky.. The Philosopher's Sport.

A balloon trip gives one a sense of utter and complete stillness and also a beautifully serene feeling of aloofness from men and tiresome matters, a contempt for the puniness of earth and an unbounded sense of sociability and camaraderie with those with whom one is basketed aloft in those few square feet of wicker. It is a philosopher's joy, ballooning, the sport of the scientific, and the idea that it provides a new thrill or curdles the blood of jaded and sinful butterflies may be good enough for the halfpenny press, but not for the wiseacres of the Aero club.—Bystander.

Lucky Horseshoes.

There is a right way and a wrong in the picking up of a horseshoe. I was walking with a country bred boy along a Somerset lane and saw one lying in the crumbling summer rut. "There is a horseshoe," said I. The lad sprang forward, but stopped suddenly before his fingers touched the iron. "But I won't pick it up," said he, "or I shall spoil your luck." It may perhaps have been only a point of etiquette, but he assured me that a horseshoe of my finding could bring luck neither to him nor to me if he touched it before me.—London Standard.

Which Was It?

The governor was puzzled. "Look here," he said, turning to his private secretary. "Can you tell me whether this note comes from my tailor or my legal adviser? They're both named Brown."

The note was as follows:

I have begun your suit. Ready to be tried on Thursday. Come in. BROWN.

—Toledo Blade.

How Trees Are Balanced.

A tree grows in perfect balance on every side. When a large branch shoots out on one side, one of equal size or two smaller appear on the other. The roots are balanced in the same way, a large branch on one side being matched by a large root. The center of gravity is thus always perfectly maintained.

Plague of Inventions.

Human ingenuity is a plague to modern life, and there is some excuse for the view of a great man who regarded the inventor of railways as a curse to his race. The truth probably is that no invention is at first perfect, and we have to suffer from its transitory imperfections—London Lancet.

A Sensitive Canine.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.
